Mark A Ball introduced the first plastic beveled edge marker in Portland, OR in 1958. Co founders Charlie Sullivan and PGA Head Pro Ted Longworth from Waverley CC teamed up together and formed the business over 60 years ago. It has been a favorite for courses from the East to West Coast. Craig Pelzer bought the company from Dan and Kathy Packard in January of 2015. Since then we have expanded the business by adding plastic Quarter Marks. Keep us in mind for last minute ideas for tournaments or your club logo. Turnaround time is under a week for most orders.

ZEROFIT BASELAYER CLOTHING

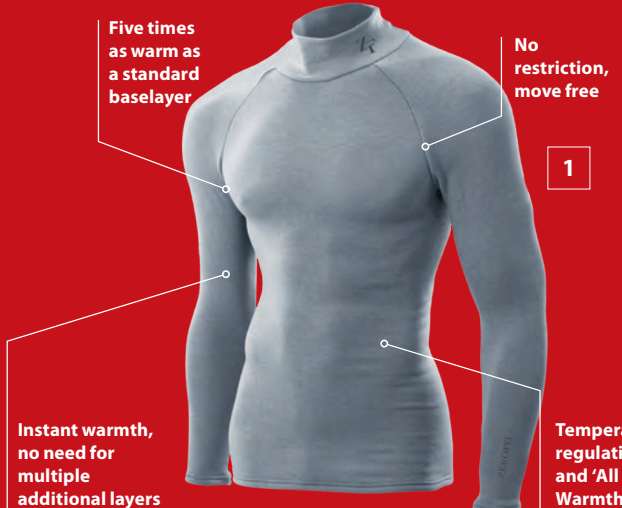

ZEROFIT HEATRUB ULTIMATE BASELAYER FIVE TIMES WARMER THAN A STANDARD MODEL

Independently tested at the iconic Boken Institute in Osaka, the Ultimate has proven to be five times warmer than leading competitors, so whether your passion is fishing, walking, hiking, farming, sailing, gardening, bowling, bird watching, snowboarding, skiing, photography, motorcycling, golf or equestrian sports - the Ultimate has got you covered, even in the coldest of conditions. It's also the perfect baselayer to wear when watching your favorite sport or team in an icy cold stadium. Testing at the Institute resulted in a heat retention rating of 0.78; a standard baselayer would have a rating of 0.1-0.14, while a sweater would typically have a rating of around 0.3.

Extra-long 'Heat Threads' on the inside of the garment (you can actually see them) gently rub against your skin as you move. This creates frictional heat which means that instant warmth is retained, and the Ultimate has been designed to work in a temperature range of 14° - 50° Fahrenheit.

ULTIMATE LEGGINGS

These are manufactured using the same patented knit process and material as the Ultimate baselayer and perform in the same way - a popular addition for many outdoor enthusiasts who want to be warm from top to bottom.

Five times as warm as a standard baselayer

No restriction, move free

Instant warmth, no need for multiple additional layers

ZEROFIT HEATRUB MOVE BASELAYER TWICE AS WARM AS A STANDARD MODEL

The Heatrub Move has been independently tested and proven to be twice as warm as a standard baselayer, performing best for athletes competing in activities including cycling, running, soccer and rugby.

The Move features a 45% polypropylene construction on the inside of the baselayer as well as a hollow polyester shell that work in tandem to ensure athletes will never experience the unpleasant feeling of cold sweat on the body after exercise has ended. More heat is retained for longer, and the innovative insulating properties, combined with its hydrophobic nature, keeps the athlete dry and warm, while the stretchable fabric allows freedom of movement. The Move also offers temperature regulation, so as athletes work harder for longer, they don't overheat in the conditions. The product has been innovated with a temperature range of 23° - 54° Fahrenheit in mind.

Twice as warm as a standard product

Perfect for higher intensity sports

Hollow polyester design and 'LABO' fabric ensures no cold sweat

Move free due to stretchable fabric
